

- Senior citizens and individuals with a significant underlying medical condition (such as chronic lung disease, moderate-to-severe asthma, serious heart conditions, immunocompromised status, cancer, diabetes, severe obesity, renal failure and liver disease) shall stay at home and take all measures to limit the risk of exposure to COVID-19.
- All persons in Florida shall limit their movements and personal interactions outside of their home to only those necessary to obtain or provide essential services or conduct essential activities.
- “Essential activities” means:
 - Attending religious services conducted in churches, synagogues and houses of worship.
 - Participating in recreational activities (consistent with social distancing guidelines) such as walking, biking, hiking, fishing, hunting, running, or swimming.
 - Taking care of pets.
 - Caring for or otherwise assisting a loved one or friend.
 - Essential services also include those businesses and activities designated by Executive Order 20-89 and its attachment which consists of a list propounded by Miami-Dade County in multiple orders.
- A social gathering in a public space is not an essential activity. Local jurisdictions shall ensure that groups of people greater than ten are not permitted to congregate in any public space.
- Encourages individuals to work from home.
- All businesses or organizations are encouraged to provide delivery, carry-out or curbside service outside of the business or organization, of orders placed online or via telephone, to the greatest extent practicable.
- Other essential services may be added with the approval of the State Coordinating Officer, in close coordination with the State Health Officer.
- The State Coordinating Officer shall maintain an online list of essential services on the Division of Emergency Management's website at www.floridadisaster.org and the Florida Department of Health's website at www.floridahealth.gov.
- Supersedes any conflicting official action or order issued by local officials in response to COVID-19.
- Includes an attachment from the Department of Homeland Security outlining “Essential Critical Infrastructure Workers”:
